In 2021, Relationships and Health Education became statutory in all primary schools in England, and Relationships, Sex and Health Education became statutory in all secondary schools. A new curriculum will become statutory in all schools in Wales in 2022.

What does this mean for Catholic schools and the Church? Will sex education be forced upon children from a young age? Will schools have to teach values that go against the teaching of the Church? As a priest or governor, how can you help your schools and parents make wise decisions about curriculum content?

Ten Ten is the leading provider of RSHE resources to Catholic schools in England and Wales. In this 60-minute webinar, we will provide facts about the new curriculum and share our experience of providing a Catholic curriculum which puts the dignity of the human person at the heart of the teaching.
